

Fourth Catholic-Orthodox Forum opens in Minsk today

Tonight the Memorial Church of All Saints will open the fourth Catholic-Orthodox Forum. Famous theologians, philosophers and religious scholars from more than 20 countries confirmed their participation. Such a massive meeting will be held in Belarus for the first time in modern history.

One of the main topics of the forum will be the spiritual crisis in Europe. The fact that it exists is doubtless. It is stated by representatives of Christian denominations. For that reason their main task is to find a way out.
