

Patriarch Kirill chairs a regular session of the supreme Church council

The Primate of the Russian Orthodox Church noted the importance of the draft Regulation on the church licensing and accreditation of the educational institutions on the programs of catechetical, missionary, youth and social activities.

The agenda of the current session of the Supreme Church Council includes the following:

- Enforcement of judgments of the Supreme Church Council of the Russian Orthodox Church and of the Bishops' Council;
- Approval of a draft Regulation on the Cossack military chaplains;
- Approval of a draft Regulation on the church licensing and accreditation of the educational institutions on the programs of catechetical, missionary, youth and social activities.